THE EVENT

USRowing and the Quinsigamond Rowing Association will host the 2012 USRowing Masters National Championships August 9-12 on Lake Quinsigamond in Worcester, Mass.

This year, the four-day championship has drawn 1,942 entries, the largest number in the history of the regatta. There will be a total of 2,013 masters rowers, ranging in age from 21-89, racing on behalf of 154 clubs. Competitors will represent 36 different states and three countries. Racing is scheduled to begin on Thursday and conclude on Sunday afternoon.

2011 RESULTS

Minneapolis Rowing Club of Minneapolis, Minn., won the team point's trophy with an overall sum of 552 points. Potomac Boat Club from Washington, D.C., won the men's national title with 360.5 point. Marin Rowing Association of Greenbrae, Calif., won the women's title. Finishing the regatta with 17 points, the St. Croix Rowing Club from Hudson, Wis., won the efficiency trophy, which is awarded to the team with the most points and fewest athletes.
