

2019 USRowing Live Streaming/Coaching Development Internship

Application Deadline: March 1, 2019

Position: Live-Streaming/Coaching Development – Summer Intern

Location: Princeton, N.J.

Internship Dates: May-August 2019. Intern must be available until the end of the USRowing Masters National Championships on August 19, 2019.

Summary:

USRowing, the national governing body for rowing in the United States, seeks a summer intern to assist in all positions of the live streaming video production and to work with the Coaching Development department in producing, editing and maintaining resources and instructional videos.

Job Functions:

- Assist set-up and operation of the live stream productions. This includes camera operation, directing and switching computer operation.
- Assist with post-production footage including marketing and distributing finished product
- Develop, produce and edit content for the Coaching Development department
- Assist Coaching Development department in production of online educational platform
- Cultivate and maintain the coaching development resource vault

Qualifications:

- Excellent organizational skills and attention to detail
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work creatively in fast-paced environments
- Ability to meet deadlines with little or no supervision
- High level of enthusiasm and a strong work ethic
- Proficient with Final Cut Pro, iMovie or equivalent
- Experience in video production, sports information, or a related field
- We assume that very few applicants will have experience with live sports video production using wireless transmission equipment and Wirecast switching software, we will teach you.

A rowing background is preferred, but not required. A stipend is offered for this position. Course credit is also available. Applicants must secure housing and transportation to USRowing headquarters in Princeton, N.J., and have access to a car over the summer. Applicant must be available to work evenings and weekends occasionally. Please email a cover letter, resume, links to work samples and three references by March 1, 2019 to Daniel.Brauchli@usrowing.org with the subject line 2019 Live Stream/Coaching Development Internship.

Dan Brauchli

USRowing Communications Manager

Daniel.Brauchli@usrowing.org